Fashion Buyer and Personal Shopper Sarah Smith brings the latest shopping tips to our readers.

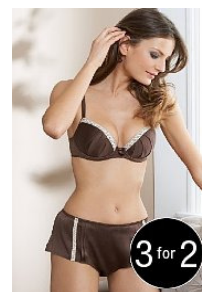

Bag the best of the December sales

This December there are some great savings to be had. I've trawled the high street to find the best deals this Christmas. Debenhams are paying the VAT on over 500 beauty and fragrance lines and have even included some of the must have fragrances for the season, Daisy by Marc Jacobs is a beautiful light scent and would make a perfect gift.

Looking for something a little more luxurious? Jaeger cashmere is beautiful quality; sourced from Mongolian goats it is incredibly luxurious. This month Jaeger is offering 2 cashmere sweaters for £175! Why not treat yourself and buy one for your husband or wife at the same time? A beautiful gift that will last a lifetime!

Happy shopping!
